The Glastonbury Town House

Paula welcomes you to her comfortable, 4-Star Edwardian Guesthouse close to Glastonbury Town Centre, Glastonbury Tor, Chalice Well Gardens, Rural Life Museum and other local attractions.

We offer a quality bed and breakfast service in the heart of Glastonbury, from where exploring Glastonbury Abbey, Glastonbury Tor and the Glastonbury Thorn is a matter of a short stroll. The Townhouse is only a few minutes' walk from the hustle of Glastonbury's busy town centre full of unusual shops, churches, historic buildings and varied cafes and bars. The house has far-reaching views of Glastonbury town and the Mendip Hills beyond.

Isle of Avalon Caravan and Camp Site

This is an excellent site about 10 mins stroll from the centre of Glastonbury with its chilled atmosphere.

We have hardstandings with electricity and a large, lush camping field surrounded by beautiful trees. Our site includes a free shower and toilet block with excellent disabled facilities, a warm room for washing up which includes washing machines and dryers. We run a small shop filled with useful goods, including drinks and ice creams. We are animal friendly, pitches well laid out so that you have plenty of space to stretch and sit out to enjoy the sun. Water service points, refuse disposal and chemical toilet areas.
